

What information will you send to my physician?

Medically managed patients have monthly reports including lab reports sent to primary care physicians other patients reports are sent quarterly.